Isn't it Amazing!

Music has always been an important part of my life for as long as I remember. I remember as a little girl, on Sunday mornings, Jubilee the Southern Gospel music program would radiate through the house. I had piano lessons from the age of 5 through high school, I sang in choir, played in the band, all the things. Christmas music is always my favorite! This year, the song Isn't it Amazing by Mark Lowry has resonated with me in a powerful way. It has been added to just about all of my playlists!

When I think of all He left, and what He came to. I'm convinced that it's the greatest mystery. Just to think that Heaven's King would leave it all and come for one like me. Isn't it amazing that He'd come to where we are. Isn't it amazing that a King would go that far. Doesn't it amaze you that we'd find Him in this place. Oh isn't it Amazing Grace! If I started writing now and wrote forever, I know that all my words would not convey. The depth of love so great that brings the spotless lamb to take my place. For our sin and death he brought us life forever. For our broken lives he brought us Perfect peace. From the shackles and the chain the King of Glory came to set us free.

May you know this Christmas and always that Jesus came for ALL! From the lowest of the low to the most prominent people, Jesus came so that everyone can receive the gift of salvation!

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year!

Phill, Stephen and Hope's Corner

Merry Christmas everyone, hope you all are doing well!

Since we last talked to you Phill moved from the ISMK office and is now working at Missouri State University as a content strategist and Katie is working towards getting her masters in California. Callen is getting soo big and is starting to walk on his own and learning new things everyday!

Stephen is flying as first officer and will be finishing up his first year at American Airlines and he will be doing some training in Charlotte so he will have a chance to be with us for the holidays.

I recently went to the ISMK ski retreat and had the chance to make so many new friends and have fun adventures around Colorado. I will also be coaching multiple skaters for my rink's annual Christmas show.

We hope you guys have a Happy Holiday and New Year!
